USE OF PHOTOGRAPHY /VIDEO RECORDING EQUIPMENT

Ogmore Caller archers is keen to promote positive image of its members via our website, social media and local press. We do not prevent the use of photographic or video equipment within the club and parents should not be prevent from taking pictures of, or filming, their children. These are normally family practices to help mark milestones in a child's life. However, we do take child protection very seriously and ask that you confirm your decision below in relation to this.

A copy of our photography policy is available on request.

I give permission for the use of Photographs/Video Recordings including my child for the purpose of club promotion and in recognition of achievements.
